

CONTRACT LET; JEFFRIS ORGAN

Grand Memorial Instrument for Congregational Church Is Assured.

FINISHED IN APRIL

W. W. Kimball & Co. of Chicago Now Have the Building of It Under Way.

FINEST IN THE CITY

The contract for the Jeffris memorial organ and the Webb memorial organ to be placed in the Congregational church, has been let to the W. W. Kimball Co., of Chicago, the contract having been signed the first of the month. The organ is now in process of construction in Chicago, but will not be ready to be placed in position in the church until April. The old organ has been sold to the Congregational church at Lake Mills but will probably not be removed until some time in April as the Lake Mills congregation is erecting a new church building.

Best in the Market

W. S. Jeffris, who was appointed by his father, David Jeffris, the donor of the organ, as his representative, has spent several months in studying organ building and the merits of the various firms of organ builders. He has personally inspected many of the finest organs in various parts of the country and he has carried on an extensive correspondence. The result has been that he has become convinced of the reliability of the Kimball company and their ability to give complete satisfaction. The contract provides that the organ is to be entirely satisfactory in every detail or it is not to be accepted.

The organ will be by far the finest one in the city. It will be complete and equipped with all modern improvements. Power for blowing the organ is to be supplied by an electric motor and the echo organ is to be controlled by an electric cable. It will be the only organ in the city where the services of a blow boy are not to be required. The action is to be duplex tubular pneumatic throughout, including stop action. This is an entirely new departure in organ building and is a valuable innovation which will be especially appreciated by organists. The touch of this action is guaranteed to be as light as that of a piano and the repetition quicker and to be the same whether one stop is drawn or the full organ, including all couplers, is used. The action of the echo organ is to be electro-pneumatic.

Scale of Manuals.

The organ will also be the only three manual organ in the city. The scale of manuals is from CC to CCCC including sixty-one notes in each manual and the scale of the pedals is from CCC to F, including thirty notes. The specifications call for twenty-nine stops, five of which belong to the echo organ, and each stop runs through the entire sixty-one notes with the exception of three stops on the pedal organ, which run through thirty notes. There are to be eight stops to the great organ, eight to the swell organ and three to the choir organ. Besides these there are the couplers, accessories and pedal movements which greatly increase the possibilities of the organ for variety and rich combination of tone.

It Has 1,800 Pipes

The organ will be over twice as large as the present one and the bellows will be placed in the basement of the church leaving the entire archedway for the organ and its 1,800 pipes. The echo organ will have 305 pipes which will be placed on either side of the window in the rear of the church gallery. The woodwork on the echo organ is to be in oak and the main organ will be finished in black walnut to harmonize with the pulpit furnishings.

Case of Native Wood.

In order to obtain more room for the organ, a part of it will be built below the level of the floor and the front circle of pipes will extend out above the choir gallery. The organist's desk is to be at one side of the organ instead of in the center, thus giving the organist an opportunity to watch the choir leaders and the pastor and also making it possible for the choir to stand together. The case of the instrument is to be of native wood finished in oil and the front pipes will be richly decorated in gold and colors to harmonize with the church decorations.

GORMAN IS CHOSEN AS SENATOR AGAIN

Democrats of Maryland Nominate Him in Caucus—Just the Number of Votes Needed.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 9.—Democratic members of the legislature, assembled in caucus last night, formally put the seal of approval upon the return of Arthur Pue Gorman to the United States senate. This sequel to his political rehabilitation at the polls last November, says his enthusiastic friends, puts him actively in the running as the presidential possibility in 1904.

His nomination was a foregone conclusion, as the election was fought out largely upon the question of his personal ambition, to further which the bitterly opposed now election law was framed. Nevertheless in the caucus three of his own party—Messrs. Shepherd, Linthicum and Shipley of Anne Trundle—sat silent during the roll call, while another, Isaac L. Straus of this city, refused to participate in the proceedings. Sixty-four members attended, though, and he received the sixty-one votes which insure his election.

DAVE ROSE SCORES SILVER DEMOCRATS

Mayor of Milwaukee Abandons Free Silver and Charges Party with Bad Error.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 9.—Mayor David S. Rose of Milwaukee, in a delivered before the Jackson club of this city last night, openly and emphatically declared his abandonment of free silver as an issue. "Low tariff and no trusts" is the slogan which the Cream City executive presented to the Jacksonians for the next campaign. This sentiment and a castigation of the Democratic party for its errors in the last two national conventions, constituted the theme of what Democrats here consider a most significant address, as indicating the probable course of the new leaders of the party.

Mayor Rose was not merely mouthed in charging his party with error. The convention of 1896 was accused of advocating changes of such a radical character as to arouse fear and distrust. But, declared Mr. Rose, while the mistake of 1896 was pardonable, the action of the Kansas City convention in reaffirming the Chicago platform, after its emphatic repudiation at the polls, was beyond excuse.

The mayor, who has heretofore supported the doctrines laid down by his party came out with the scathing rebuke heard in the past only from the lips of Republicans and sound-money Democrats—that his party had been dominated by the populists and silver republicans. The money question, he averred, was entitled to no place in the platform.

TUNG FU HSIANG TO BE BEHEADED

Notorious Chinese Anti-Foreign Agitator Ordered Executed.

SIGN DEATH EDICT

Emperor of China Is Under Complete Domination of Empress Dowager.

ONLY A FIGUREHEAD

Peking, Jan. 9.—An edict has been signed by the dowager empress ordering the decapitation of General Tung Fu Hsiang, the notorious anti-foreigner. A Tartar general in Kansu province has been ordered to carry out this sentence. Yuan Shai Kai, the viceroy of Chihli province, and a number of other influential officials, memorialized the throne, charging Tung Fu Hsiang with the murder of Belgian missionaries and urging his execution before he could institute rebellion and involve China in trouble with foreign governments. All evidences indicate that the emperor of China is now more completely under the domination of the dowager empress than he was before the Chinese court went into exile. Several high officials were granted audiences today.

day, during which the emperor filled the role of a figurehead. The empress dowager sat on his majesty's left, and conducted the conversations. According to the accounts of two of the officials who were received today, the dowager empress ignored the emperor and the latter did not attempt to take any part in the affair. These officials say his majesty appeared melancholy and listless. The principal topic of conversation during these audiences was the presence in Peking of the foreign garrisons. The dowager empress seemed impressed with the necessity of a conciliatory policy. Tung Fu Hsiang is said to be beyond the reach of the dowager empress, being in Kansu, where he is engaged in forming an army to invade North China. Foreigners in Peking place little confidence in the dowager's other promises.

WISWELL WILL BE BURIED AT ELKHORN

Funeral of the Late George N. Wiswell Tomorrow—Services Held in Milwaukee Today.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 9.—The funeral of the late George N. Wiswell took place this morning from the family residence, the Rev. Charles S. Lester, officiating. Then the body was conveyed to the station of the Milwaukee road, escorted by a delegation from Wisconsin commandery, No. 1, Knights Templars. This escort went to Elkhorn on the funeral train, as did also personal, business and political friends of Mr. Wiswell. Interment will be in the cemetery at Elkhorn tomorrow afternoon, and the Elkhorn lodge, F. and A. M., will have charge of the ceremonies. Elkhorn was the early home of Mr. Wiswell and the services there, which will be under the directions of the lodge, will probably be one of the largest demonstrations of its kind that has ever taken place in Walworth county. The body will be escorted to the train by the Masons, a committee of whom will go to Elkhorn to act as an escort to the Masons of that place, who conduct the services.

Henry C. Payne has postponed the time for taking his leave for Washington until after the funeral of Mr. Wiswell, and he and Mrs. Payne will pay their last tribute to the body of the deceased today.

BADGER STATE CHEESE-MAKERS

Tenth Annual Convention is Now in Progress in Milwaukee.

PRODUCT IS PURE

Assembled to Listen to Papers on Way to Improve Sales and Prices.

DETAILS OF SESSION

Milwaukee, Jan. 9.—Three hundred and fifty Wisconsin cheesemakers are attending the annual convention of the state association now in session at the republican house. The convention opened yesterday morning at ten o'clock and will continue through today and tomorrow. In the absence of Mayor Rose John F. Donovan welcomed the visitors. The greater portion of the day was devoted to the reading of papers on subjects pertaining to the manufacture and sale of cheese. In the afternoon prizes were awarded on various exhibits of cheese.

Dairying in Wisconsin
Former Congressman S. A. Cook, the father of the filled-cheese bill, gave a short talk, saying that the dairying business of Wisconsin was one of the most important industries of the state, and that it was increasing in importance every day. He was heartily in accord with any movement to better the conditions under which the cheesemakers are laboring or to give them a better market for their product.

Cheese Board Today

The proposed cheese exchange apparently is not arousing the amount of interest among the cheese men that was expected. While there is no well developed opposition to the plan among members of the convention, there are several cheese dealers on the ground from Chicago and other points who are ardently using every influence from preventing the association from endorsing the plan. Some of them argue that it would work a hardship upon the small factory, which has difficulty in standing up under the present competition.

To Talk on Rates

Tomorrow morning E. P. Bacon will deliver an address on the amendment of the interstate commerce act. It is charged that there has been unjust discrimination in freight rates in favor of eastern cheesemakers and against Wisconsin factories, and in other years formal complaint has been made to the railroad commissioner of the state.

Dealers to Meet Today

The National Association of Cheese Dealers met this morning at the Plankinton House. Thirty-four delegates were in attendance, representing the largest houses in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and points in Wisconsin.

Each railroad favoring one shipper, one of these favored shippers gave testimony supporting the charges.

ALASKA SHIP LOST; SEVEN ARE DEAD

Steamer Bristol, One of the Best Known Cruisers of the Coast, Is Wrecked.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 9.—The steamer Bristol, one of the oldest and best known heavy carriers of the coast, lies a wreck on the end of Green Island, forty miles from Port Simpson, and her captain with six members of the crew have gone to the bottom with her.

The steamer was on her way from Ladysmith, Vancouver Island, to the Treadwell mine on Douglas Island, Alaska, with 2,500 tons of coal. She was wrecked on the night of Jan. 2, and is now entirely out of sight at high tide. Passengers arriving last night by the City of Seattle gave accounts of the disaster.

Green Island lies right in the path of Alaska steamers, and being low and small, is impossible to be seen on a dark night. The steamer was trying to make Dixon's entrance in a rough sea when she went aground. It was 11 o'clock when she struck and seas washed over her stern until she disappeared.

CHILDREN WILL NOT BE SOLD AT AUCTION

STARTED A BOOM FOR WHITEHEAD

Janesville Man is the Stalwart Favorite for Governor.

HIS MADISON TALK

He Robbed the Wisconsin Half Breeds of Their Tax Reform Thunder.

IS A REAL REFORMER

The address of Senator John M. Whitehead of Janesville before Amos P. Wilder's Six O'Clock club at Madison on Monday night, says the Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean resulted in a spontaneous and unlooked for boom for him among stalwarts who have for some time been casting about among their leaders for a candidate to oppose Governor LaFollette in his ambition to serve a second term as governor. The result was wholly unexpected and unlooked for by everyone, especially Wilder, who furnished the program of speeches.

Neither Wilder nor the Stalwarts anticipated that Whitehead would furnish the keynote for the Stalwart campaign, but he did, and from one end of the state to the other little else is discussed politically today. Senator Whitehead's stock in the gubernatorial running is, therefore, away above par, for what he had to say has started a current of thought in the minds of conservative men which it would seem is bound to result in a rally to his standard.

Whitehead a Real Reformer

Whitehead is the father of the tax commission, and as a member of the committee on assessment and taxation he has recognized as a conservative, fair, and just reformer who believed in equality in taxation, and who was not afraid to plan for measures that would require a railroad or other corporation to pay its just share of the burden of taxation into the treasury of the state.

But he realizes the futility of taxing intangible property, showing that it often results in double taxation. That he is not afraid to express himself freely, and that he has done so, there is no denying; yet none who has read his banquet utterances will say that he is either a defender of tax dodgers or an advocate of high-handed and ill-timed legislation calculated to unjustly increase the taxes of a corporation; neither will any one say that he is a wabblor or that he would retreat an inch from the position he has always maintained, which is that all should be treated as nearly alike as is possible in the matter of the tax burden.

He Despises Populism

He believes in the tax commission honestly maintained, but he does not believe that any political party can live if it has for its creed the destruction of enterprises which are dependent upon fair treatment for success, and he would do nothing that would have a tendency to banish capital from the state. He despises populism, and regards it as the greatest menace to the state, especially as it has been for some time nurtured by men in the republican party who hope thereby to create a prejudice against the conservative element which advocates a fair and equal taxation for necessary expenditures simply for the purpose of filling the treasury with money to be squandered.

Will Rally Around Whitehead

If Senator Whitehead's address has not already won for him the nomination of the Wisconsin republicans for governor against Robert M. LaFollette, every indication unusual depended upon these emergencies is misleading. More than this, it is believed that the field is clear, and that within a few days there will rally to his standard every man who has been mentioned as a candidate, together with every stalwart and many of the men who have cast their lot with LaFollette.

Senator Whitehead's record in the legislature, especially on this question of taxation, and his reputation as a fearless advocate of justice to every one, won for him a great many friends among the followers of LaFollette, and it is now believed that in making the address at Madison he stole the thunder of the half-breeds, and that they will be at their wits' end to make reply to it.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—The Kaiser is credited with the intention of convening an international labor conference here.

Leaf Tobacco Market

During the past week several hundred acres of leaf tobacco have been delivered to the warehouses in the city. So far Janesville dealers have bought more of the 1901 crop than the buyers from other parts of the country, with the exception of the American Cigar Company, who have had a number of buyers out and have purchased a good share of the crop.

So far little buying has been done by the Edgerton packers although considerable riding through the country after samples is being done. Tobacco men will tell you that thousands of unrefined things may arise to govern the sale of a crop. At the time a packing is put up, it often looks as if they had paid too much for the goods and would do well then later in the year a chain of events occur that bring the goods in demand and puts the price far beyond what any one had expected.

To get out without losing money. The abnormal demand for binders during the last year cleaned up all the old tobacco in any way adapted to the use of the manufacturers. This would seem to show that the 1901 crop would be in good demand during the present year.

One thing that helps the sale of the crop is the large increase in the number of tobacco users. The growth of this country is very rapid and the number of people using tobacco increases correspondingly. The increase is not near what was expected in this state, or other tobacco growing districts, and if there is a steady increase in the number of consumers the natural consequences is that all good tobacco will be in demand at first class figures.

The heaviest buyers of 1901 so far in this vicinity are L. B. Carle & Son, John Soultman & Co., S. B. Heddes, George Rumliff, George M. Decker, Fisher & Fisher, Sanford Sovierhill and R. G. Merrill.

The prices range from 7 to 11 cents. A few low grade crops have been contracted for at about 5 cents.

A number of the warehouses have a force of sorters at work but none of them are employing anything like the number of hands they did last year.

To judge from the phenomenal business done last year by our cigar industry and the retail trade, and by the latter particularly during the holiday season, the prospects for the leaf market in 1902 should be most brilliant. The retail cigar stores never enjoyed such a sweeping trade as during the Christmas and New Years weeks just passed. Through the inducement of profitable deals and the rush and push of the cigar manufacturers, large and small, throughout the entire year, they were never before stocked as well during the past holiday season for an extraordinary business; and yet they were cleaned out, and some of them could not get the additional supplies needed.

The actual output of cigars for the current fiscal year, will not fall much short of the seven thousand million figure.

With such a prospect for the output of our cigar industry, the leaf market should also enjoy a record-breaking activity. There are, however, some features which might act as drawbacks, chief of which is the unsatisfactory condition of the 1901 crops. Of the nearly 90,000 cases of the New England crop, the largest ever raised, nearly 65,000 cases will come out sound and merchantable, there will in consequence be a scarcity of domestic wrapper leaf. The Wisconsin crop has suffered to much from drought and was stunted in consequence, its growth too much to become available throughout as the binder crop. The Pennsylvania is infected with other defects too much to make it an unexceptional B crop. At one time its large growth raised the hope of getting a wrapper crop, but the seas killing that hope. The operations in the Ohio crop, have been spoiled by greed and incompetency, and such fancy fillers as will be extracted from it will have to command a higher price than ever before if they are put up to satisfy the now fastidious requirements of the trade for such class of goods. The Big Flat crop has been reduced in extent by a grasshopper plague, and it is too early to judge of the Onondaga, which generally changes its complexion in the sweat. Only the Florida crop seems to have come out with flying colors and to run in evidence with the 1900 crop.

It is evident from these observations that there will not be a surplus of domestic leaf to trade in this year. It will have to go begging in view of the steady increase of our cigar output. The insufficiency of the crops might have acted as a harmful drawback if they had been acquired in the field with a corresponding raise in prices. But our packers seem to have learned a lesson at last and are playing this season a waiting game, which is bound to turn out to their advantage. With crops that promise to leave no surplus, except such perhaps as will have to be exported or destroyed on account of inferiority or rotteness, an excellent trade is assured for the year; and if acquired right as it seems now will be the case, then there will be no kick coming, either, as to its profitability.—U. S. Tobacco Journal.

Edgerton—While the situation regarding the new crop is generally quiet in the southern growing sections of the state, the pleasant weather and fine roads has given a temptation to ride and buyers are nibbling away again in a moderate way. Their aim seems likely to get better acquainted with the merits of the tobacco, but sales are being made by the dealers riding, showing a growing disposition among local packers at least to take hold of the crop.

Stoughton—Local buyers are making no move so far in purchasing the 1901 crop, therefore assorting in the several warehouses will not begin this year as in years past, at the beginning of the new year.

Levi Kittelsen picked up the past week twenty-seven cases of '99 and disposed of 360 cases of his old packing to Rossins and Son. Ed. Bjorn sold the 74 cases of '98 to the same firm.—Courier.

Loel, Wis.—There is a great lull in the tobacco business during the holiday season, and there will be a dearth of buyers until after the new year. The crops are partially stripped in many cases, and the growers are anxious to finish the stripping. It is reported that the American Cigar Co. has bought a number of crops in the vicinity of "The Sand" and out Dekora way, but very few crops have been sold elsewhere in this vicinity. One buyer has succeeded in getting a few crops at 9¢ and 8¢, and has made a number of offers at 8¢ and 7¢, but the growers have refused to sell, preferring to wait until the weed is stripped. Business will no doubt open up good and brisk in the near future.—Enterprise.

The recent cold weather in Ohio has been succeeded by fog and rain, and the remainder of hanging tobacco is being rapidly taken down and stripped. So far as has been learned the crop is very good, with not more than the usual percentage of damage. Sales, however, can hardly be said to have commenced, only two firms having purchased a supply. Everybody recognizes, however, that this inactivity is near its end, especially as the holdings of 1900 Zimner are being rapidly exhausted. Fancy crops of this leaf are now very scarce and prices have advanced to 10 cents through. By this time next week it is expected that the old crop will have all passed out of the hands of the growers and the new leaf will be in a condition to start buying all around.

In Connecticut full advantage of the prevailing damp weather is being taken and stripping is engaging the attention of the growers. So far as it is ascertainable, farmers report that there is little pole burn and some fat stems, but they declare the damage does not exceed the usual percentage. Buyers, however, estimate the damage at fully 25 per cent and are hazy about purchasing. There is considerable dissatisfaction among growers at the action of buyers, who bought in the field and now refuse to accept tobacco, except at a considerable reduction. It is asserted that some buyers made a practice of securing crops by agreeing to pay high prices, which they dock considerably when delivery is offered.

The tobacco market in New York has been very quiet, and the absence of buyers renders it improbable that business will revive until the next week or later. The holidays naturally interfered with trade to a considerable extent and the desire of buyers to see the leaf before purchasing completed the cause for dullness. Stripping is well under way, however, and it will not be long before activity will be general. The few farmers who have completed their stripping are evincing a desire to sell in bundle without assorting but buyers have been made wary by the reports of worm, hopper and other damage, and have religiously refrained from such speculations. Progressive growers are giving careful attention to sorting and although it may take a little more time, it is more than certain that they will find their action profitable.

The week has been very quiet in Milwaukee so far as the business done by leaf jobbers is concerned, although one or two large orders for immediate delivery were filled. Bookkeepers and clerks are busy balancing up the year's work and checking stock. Manufacturers have been turning over their stock as fast as possible, and quantities on hand are very small. The retail trade has been very good, and a large amount of holiday goods was sold.

O'Connor-Farrington Wedding.

Miss Elizabeth O'Connor of the town of Janesville, and Edward Farrington of the town of Rock, were happily married yesterday morning at St. Patrick's church. The wedding was celebrated by Rev. Father J. J. Collins, and the wedding was a very pretty one. The happy principals were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Birdie O'Connor. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with hat to match, and her bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in castor serge.

Both young people are well known in this city as well as in the surrounding country. The bride is a daughter of John O'Connor, and is an attractive and estimable young lady, while the groom is an enterprising farmer and a genial gentleman. On their return from their brief wedding journey the groom will take his bride to his farm home in the town of Fulton. They have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy and prosperous future.

The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium, or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by People's Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

MISSION REPORT OF REV. MARY KIMBALL

Resume of Her Work from June, 1900, to January, 1902—Contains

Many Items of Interest.
Rev. Mary Kimball, city missionary has compiled a report of her mission work from June, 1900 to January, 1902, a period of eighteen months and the report contains many items of interest to those who are in sympathy with the charitable work conducted by Miss Kimball. During the eighteen months covered by the report, the city missionary reports 724 calls made from house to house, 89 families supplied with food, 31 men and 26 women and girls fed at the mission, 17 women lodged, and a total number of 300 people fed. Homes have been found for 6 children and employment secured for 28 men and women.

Hundreds of articles contributed by the people of Janesville, have been distributed among the needy by Miss Kimball. Among these articles were 1,545 garments, 4,354 papers, 100 magazines, bed clothing, including springs, mattresses, pillows, quilts and comforters, baby carriages, chairs, carpeting, handkerchiefs, sleds, slates and Bibles and other useful articles.

There have been 245 meetings held and 243 sermons preached at the mission. Three funerals have been conducted and four bodies prepared for burial; 100 persons have professed conversion and the rite of Baptism administered to one person. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered the first Sunday evening each month and Sunday school convenes every Sunday.

Several special services have been held at the mission. Thanksgiving 1900, was observed with a dinner for 200 children. The dinner served being good in quality, of large variety and abundant in quantity. Christmas, 1900, was observed on the 27th. A dense crowd gathered at the mission to enjoy the Christmas tree and every inch of floor space was occupied.

Christmas, 1901, was celebrated with a dinner for a large company of children, a Christmas tree heavily laden with beautiful presents, and an interesting program. The passing of the year 1900 and the dawn of 1901 was observed at the mission with an all night service which commenced Dec. 31 at 8 o'clock and closed at 3 o'clock the next morning. From that time meetings were held every evening for two months.

In addition to the work of the mission, the report shows that the sick have been visited, Bible readings, conversation and prayer held with them, flowers, fruit, delicacies and medicine furnished for them; the sick and dead have been watched with. Two months was spent in nursing a case of typhoid fever of the worst type; seven days spent on an errand of mercy in Tennessee, a few services held with the prisoners in the police station and the Rock county jail and a few open air meetings held.

The electric spark goes through every vein and every nerve. A pleasant feeling creeps over the soul after taking Rocky Mountain Tea, making young the aged and feeble. Smith's Pharmacy.

Miss Inez Steele of Chicago has returned to her home after a couple of weeks' visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Every Exertion a Task Every Care a Burden

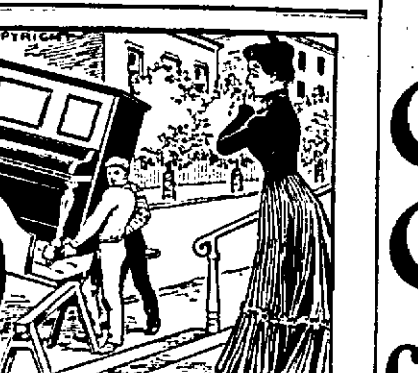

There is failure of the strength to do and the power to endure; there is weakness "all over" that is persistent and constant.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for Mrs. L. B. Carland, Shady, Tenn., it has done for others. She took it when she was all run down—without appetite, losing flesh, and unable to do her work. It restored her appetite, increased her weight, and made her well and strong. This is her own unsolicited statement.

SURPRISING RESULTS.

A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh. People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at the results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form: druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which the sell at 50 cents for full sized treatment is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat which causes coughing is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause but by deadening the nerves of feeling the irritation is not felt although it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics like Red Gum, Blood Root, etc.; when you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiates or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Ramsdell in commenting on catarrh cures, says: "I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine nor other injurious drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long standing catarrh in the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular, which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy."

Dr. Wainright says: "I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their regular daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores is no reason why any good physician should not use them because we should seize upon the means of cure wherever found."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children because they are pleasant to the taste and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

All druggists sell the remedy at fifty cents for full sized package. A little book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Minn.

Pekin, Jan. 9.—While the actual casualties during the fighting at New-Chwang between American sailors belonging to the United States gunboat Vicksburg, which is wintering there, and Russian soldiers attached to the garrison of that port are trifling up to date, the matter has resulted in unpleasant strained relations between the American, Russian and British authorities there. The Washington and St. Petersburg governments are now endeavoring to arrange matters so that there may be no further friction.

HEPBURN BILL WILL PASS HOUSE

Fight There Is Simply to Give Senate Excuse to Block It.

WHAT SENATOR MORGAN SAYS.

Declares Transcontinental Railroads Fix Isthmus Rates—Insists That Panama Company Is Party to an Agreement to Maintain a Monopoly.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 9.—The Hepburn canal bill has encountered greater opposition than Mr. Hepburn anticipated, but not enough to prevent its passage by the House. There has developed considerable sentiment in the House favorable to the proposition to leave the selection of the canal route to the President and the canal commission. This sentiment is not strong enough either to amend the bill or defeat it. Mr. Hepburn was unable to secure an agreement for a vote during the day, and the House adjourned without such an agreement. The debate will continue to-morrow, and may go over for another day. The opponents have no hope of amending it in the House. They are simply preparing the ground work for the opposition which will develop in the Senate. The Senators who wish to block the way of the bill desire to have some opposition in the House as an excuse for holding back the bill. It is not apparent that the Panama proposition is gaining ground. It is being used as an excuse for not adopting the Nicaragua route. Senator Morgan hopes to be able to show that there is still in existence a contract between the Panama railroad, owned by the Panama Canal company, and the transcontinental railroads, whereby a monopoly is maintained by fixing the rate of freight and passengers across the isthmus and on the steamer lines. If Senator Morgan is able to produce this contract he may establish the real source of the opposition to canal legislation. He declares that the transcontinental railroads now fix the rates between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts by the isthmus, as well as across the country by rail. The committee on inter-oceanic canal has been authorized to make investigations regarding this alleged contract. The second day of the debate was opened by Mr. Shackelford of Missouri, a member of the committee which reported the bill. He spoke earnestly in advocacy of its passage.

"If you favor this bill," interposed Mr. Bartholdt (Mo.), "why is it that you and your Democratic colleagues from Missouri at the last session voted against a similar bill?" "Because," replied Mr. Shackelford, "the bill at the last session was passed through this House to the tune of 'God Save the Queen.' I want it passed to the sweet strains of 'Hail, Columbia.' "But the Hay-Pauncefote treaty was not ratified at the last session," observed Mr. Bartholdt. "True, it was not," replied Mr. Shackelford, "but our English secretary of state wanted it ratified, and because we believed the wishes of her majesty's representative in the cabinet would prevail, we opposed the bill."

WHAT OF PROTECTION?

The Milwaukee Journal would be a democratic paper if it could discover a democratic constituency, but the party has been so badly demoralized since Bryan struck the trail, that like many other party organs, the Journal has been compelled to assume the role of independence, with a club for every political head wherever discovered. The Journal is a wide awake newspaper, and while serving the news, is having plenty of fun with the boys of whatever political faith.

But while publishing the news, and enjoying a full measure of recreation, the paper every now and then returns to its old idols and for a bracer takes a whirl at old time democracy as she was taught before the war.

In a recent issue the Journal devoted a column of editorial space to protection. The article was refreshing because it called back old memories of simon pure democracy, a commodity that is so scarce that the younger generation fail to recognize it unless labeled.

The paper took for a text the sugar industry. Some reckless republican Journal had made a plea for the retention of duty on imported sugar, claiming that the infant beet sugar industry needed encouraging, and that under proper stimulus the home producer would soon supply the home market, thereby furnishing employment to American capital and labor.

This, of course, is good republican doctrine, but the Journal could not resist the temptation of assailing it with the old time democratic heresy, "the tariff is a tax," and then attempted to prove that the people were asked to pay tribute to a few farmers and manufacturers who were engaged in the culture of beets and the sugar industry. The same old story thrashed over so many times that there is nothing left but the chaff. The Journal doubtless derived a great deal of satisfaction from the effort, and the exercise will keep the paper in training for the party that may some day come back to it, but the argument is so flat that it long since lost weight.

There is nothing quite so potent as an object lesson, and the American people are more or less observing. Not so very long ago an old line democrat by the name of Grover Cleveland, occupied the White House, as president. His advisors in both houses of congress were in sympathy with him, and for the first time in many years the democratic party had absolute control of government. In four short years ability was demonstrated to spend the surplus, create a magnificent debt for running expenses, paralyze home industries and flood the land with free trade foreign goods.

The question that absorbed the minds of the idle masses, was not whether sugar was worth five cents a pound, but whether the soup houses would hold out long enough to keep them alive until the next election.

The tariff was not a tax during this well remembered period in American history. Everything was as free as air and sunshine. There was so much freedom that it became monotonous. People had nothing to do, and Coxey's army, with thousands of smaller squads, went marching through the country, until we resembled a nation of tramps.

Those were the halcyon days of free trade. No tax, no responsibility, no work, no money, no sugar, but plenty of free soup.

The Journal may sigh for a return but the sigh is only answered with an echo. The people are sighing today from weariness of incessant toll, but the sigh has a musical refrain, for back of it is happiness and contentment. They have sugar three times a day and luxuries galore, and if the tariff is a tax they are ignorantly happy. The Journal should refrain from mossbacked reminiscences. They are not profitable and do not aid digestion.

IN ALL HONESTY.

The Janesville Gazette has suggested some conditions under which Governor La Follette can regain the confidence of the people and win their support "and that is for him to acknowledge that he has made some errors in judgment, that he has been unreasonable in dealing with men who differed with him and that he won't do so any more."

This plan seems very reasonable, and it is certainly easy. To whom shall the governor make his acknowledgment, and how shall he make it? In all earnestness we suggest to the editor of The Gazette that he shall arrange a plan for the governor to acknowledge that he has been the cause of it, and that he send a committee to Madison to present to his excellency. Probably Supt. Hutton would lend the good Mr. Bliss a delegation of boys from the state school, or Mr. Bliss might go himself. Milwaukee Free Press.

The editor of the Milwaukee paper seems to be seeking light with a sarcastic candle. Like the man whom he champions, he is color blind and the case is hopeless. There are some species of defective vision that may be benefited by operation, and others that are aided by the use of glasses, but congenital blindness is hereditary, and beyond the skill of the oculist or optician.

There are some minds that are so dense that a keen blade is necessary to penetrate them, while others yield to less drastic treatment, but a mind that is congenitally stubborn, is beyond hope of recovery.

The man who won't see, belongs to this class of defectives, and time spent on these cases is worse than wasted.

Governor La Follette belongs to the class of men who are blind to anything that they don't want to see. He had no desire to see the blind boys, referred to, when they called at his office last summer, and his best friends find it difficult to gain an audience when they have anything to suggest in the way of advice. Independent American citizens have no time to waste on a mind that is "set" even when possessed by a governor.

SENATOR WHITEHEAD.

The recent address of Senator Whitehead at Madison has occasioned much favorable comment. The Milwaukee Free Press abuses the courtesy usually extended to self-respecting journalists, and accuses the republican league of steering the senator and his utterances.

The invitation to be present at the meeting of the Six O'clock Club and speak on taxation, came through Amos P. Wilder, of the Madison Journal. When it was accepted, Mr. Wilder gave it a political turn by announcing through his Burnett letter, that the address would be the first utterance from the eleventh floor, thus compromising the senator, by attempting to introduce politics into a social non-partisan meeting.

Senator Whitehead is too well and favorably known throughout the state to be injured by it. His address was in no sense political. He possesses too much good common sense to abuse a courtesy by discussing politics in a non-partisan social club.

The governor's Milwaukee Organ discovers a mare's nest, and attempts to claim that the whole thing was a bid for gubernatorial honor. While it is a foregone conclusion that other names besides that of Governor La Follette will be presented at the republican state convention, The Gazette has it from Senator Whitehead himself that he is not seeking the honor. He believes, as does the conservative constituency, which he represents, that if Governor La Follette is not selected to succeed himself, that the office should seek the man.

Should the governor be renominated, he will have Senator Whitehead's support. He spent time and money for him two years ago, and will do so again if occasion requires, because he is a Rock county republican and they belong to the breed that are noted for loyalty.

Senator Whitehead is sound on the question of taxation. He believes in the tax commission. Why shouldn't he? The commission would never have seen the light of day but for his efforts. He possesses the qualities of mind and heart that make him strong in both public and private life. Should the state ever honor him with the high office of chief executive, the honor will be reciprocal. He is large enough to govern himself, and large enough to preside over the destinies of a state.

THE MEMORIAL FUND.

Regret is expressed by the promoters and trustees of the McKinley Memorial fund because of lack of interest in the offering. The indifference manifested in Janesville is evidenced in all parts of the country and as a result, contributions are meager, while many localities are without representation.

The Wisconsin committee had hoped to raise $20,000, but it is doubtful if more than half that amount is secured. This will be doing as well as Ohio, where liberal donations would naturally be expected.

While the lack of interest is embarrassing to the committee, it is very easily accounted for, and should not be cause for criticism. The time to raise funds in any large amount was within a month from the date of the president's death. The lack of interest in the memorial fund is not an indication of disrespect to his memory. That will live as a bright spot in the hearts of the people.

If his wife was in want generous hands would be extended from every nook and corner of the land, but there is a certain amount of sentiment about dead heroes that does not appeal to the hearts of the American people so vigorously as live issues.

This was true of Grant, and New York with all her wealth, was unable to complete a monument. It is true of the late president. While thousands of people would have contributed cheerfully for a memorial, when public sentiment was first aroused, the movement waited too long, and the masses feel today that the monument fund will be large enough if they do not assist.

It is safe to assume that the several states will contribute half a million dollars and this will erect a monument that will be an honor to the nation. Every locality will be represented, and the mite is an expression of good will.

The wants of the living are so numerous, and so pressing, that attention is soon diverted from the world of sentiment to the realm of the real, and if the martyred president could speak today he would say: "Remember the living while they are with you."

The monument will be erected and will be a reminder to future generations of a president whose life was a benediction, and whose tragic and untimely death, the nation sincerely mourned.

An effort is to be made by the educators of the state to reform spelling, and introduce phonetic spelling. This is a move in the wrong direction. The average child knows little enough now when school life is completed. Deprive him of common sense spelling, continue to neglect writing and composition, and it will be necessary for business men to establish schools for practical knowledge, as has already been done in Chicago.

Congressman Cooper's bill provides for a Philippine government to be under the supervision of the United States. Mr. Cooper is chairman of the Insular committee, and the subject has been thoroughly canvassed.

Three million cans, representing thirty car loads, are being turned out at Maywood, Ill., for a St. Louis house. A liberal New Years order that speaks of continued prosperity.

A lawyers' trust in La Crosse, and a boot blacks' union in Janesville, are the latest. "The world do move."

The campaign train will lose interest in the discussion of taxation.

PRESS COMMENT.

Before dismissing the subject of the differences in the republican party today, we should not forget that Governor La Follette started the trouble, by his attack on the legislators, who claimed to have some rights in framing legislation. If he had been less arrogant he might have had a primary election bill passed that he would be willing to sign. As it was, he persisted in a rule-of-ruin policy that ruled nobody and will only ruin himself.—Reedsburg Free Press.

While men differ in judgment respecting Governor La Follette, no one has the hardihood to deny that he attempted to brow-beat the last legislature in a manner that put to shame the efforts that made Boss Wall famous in the days when the democrats were in a majority.—Palmyra Enterprise.

Life is full of paradoxes. Take the case of our present state executive, for instance. When he was inaugurated Governor with a big G, he was a reformer with a little r; but when he attempted to be a Reformer with a big R, he became a governor with a little g.—Fennimore Times.

There are several points of resemblance between Bryan and La Follette. Both like to talk glittering generalities from the rear platforms of special cars, and both are equally sparing of cold facts, backed by plain figures.—Dodgeville Republican.

Racine Journal: Whether or not Wisconsin can work an export tax on outsiders remains to be seen. The ice export tax was one of the objectionable pieces of legislation of the last legislature and more than objectionable because a nullification of the federal constitution.

La Follette must have been unfortunate in his assistants. At least no one of them has been considered of sufficient importance to render any service to the president.—Marinette Eagle.

Appleton Crescent: Nothing has been heard from Congressman Babcock since the trusts sat down on the party and resolved that there should be no reduction in the protection given to the trusts. Where is he?

Milwaukee Sentinel: Wisconsin is a large and important state and the republican party is strong, and yet Public Printer Wilder could not induce the president to take a hand in settling the dispute in the ranks of the Wisconsin republicans.

Ashland Press: The fakir cannot hide himself under the cloak of legitimate publisher, when kicking against second-class mail reforms, any more than the devil can hide himself under the cloak of honesty when tempting some one to steal.

Eau Claire Leader: There is a school district in this part of the state in which the teacher gets $30 a month for training children; but in which resides a man who gets $60 a month for training horses.

Evening Wisconsin: Although the Beers have been making a great deal of "music" for Tommy Atkins, they seem to be steadily losing their field corners.

SMILES.

Recently a public school teacher wrote the sentence, "Them boys are sliding down hill," and requested someone in the school to "correct and why." One bright youngster held up his hand, and on being asked said: "Correction—'Those boys are sliding down hill. Why—Because they can't slide up.'—Tit-Bits.

Curate (highly delighted): "I've had a great compliment paid to me today, sir. A member of the congregation asked me to be allowed to see the manuscript of my 'sermon.' 'Vicar—That's very gratifying. Who was it?'—Curate (more pleased): "Oh, Johnson. You know Johnson, the inspector of nuisances?"—Glasgow Evening Times.

EARLY SETTLER IN BELOIT IS DEAD

Mr. S. J. Todd, Aged 81 Years,
Passed Away This Morning—
He Was a Notable Figure

Beloit, Jan. 9.—S. J. Todd, one of the best known pioneer settlers in this city died this morning at 11 o'clock of general debility, owing to old age.

Greene, lieutenant commander in the South American squadron of the United States navy. Mrs. Greene and her son were met in Chicago by Lieut. Lieut. Greene's remains have rested in a grave at Montevideo, Uruguay, since his sudden death on Jan. 10, 1900. An attempt was made to have them brought here at the time but the laws of the country prevented and the remains were buried on shore and recently they have been exhumed and brought to this country on a United States transport which arrived in New York today, which likes but one day of being the second anniversary of Lieut. ## Increase of English Insanity.

London, Jan. 9.—Increasing insanity, supposed to be due to consanguineous marriages, resulting in a reduction of population in numerous rural parishes, is the latest and most disturbing phase of the exodus from the country to the cities in England. Physicians and clergymen in several widely separated counties are giving the London press warning of the government promptly to attempt to grapple with the problem. One rector says that 90 per cent of the burials in his parish last year were persons tainted with insanity. Dr. A. F. Tredgold, Guildford, Surrey, late insanity expert to the London county council, joins in the outcry against marriage of relatives and asserts that the existence of the country population is at stake. He suggests that if legislation cannot be passed prohibiting the union of persons predisposed to insanity some means ought to be found for infusing fresh blood into the rural districts.

Calls Jew Haters Criminal.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—Abraham Klausner, editor of the Israelite, a Semitic weekly paper, was sentenced to-day to six weeks' imprisonment for having published the statement that the anti-Semites of Germany are criminals and rascals and that their proper place is either the penitentiary or the lunatic asylum. Klausner was prosecuted by Dr. Giese, manager of the German Social Reform Union. The editor had attacked Giese in connection with the recent Kenuz murder case. Giese had called on the government to drive the Jews from Germany as the only means of suppressing ritual murder. Before he was sentenced Klausner made an eloquent speech in his own defense, saying that he preferred to eat prison bread rather than swallow his own words. He also repeated the statement that anti-Semitism and those connected with it are criminal and godless.

Spur for British Millionaires.

London, Jan. 9.—Mr. Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, presiding at a meeting of the governors of the University of Birmingham, earnestly appealed to British millionaires to relieve the university from all financial difficulty and thus hand their names down to immortal fame, as Andrew Carnegie has done.

Cut this out and take it to People's Drug Store or King's Pharmacy and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They also cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness and headache.

Flash Word of Death.
New York, Jan. 9.—A dispatch to the Herald from Nantucket lightship, off the coast of Massachusetts, gives an account of the manner in which Capt. Jorgensen and the lightship learned of the illness and death of his daughter through the wireless telegraph system. Informed by wireless telegraphy from the mainland, and yet kept an unwilling prisoner for seven days because of the extremely rough sea, which prevented incoming steamers from taking him off, Capt. Jorgensen of the lightship finally succeeded in getting on board the steamship Astoria, which will carry him ashore.

Finishes Transcaspian Line.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 9.—The authorities are preparing to celebrate the completion of the railway through Transcaspia, which connects Kars on the Russo-Turkish frontier with Tiflis. From a commercial point of view the new line is unimportant, but its political and military significance is obvious from the fact that its terminus is Alexandropol, a Russian town in the immediate vicinity of the Turko-Persian frontier. The government is leaving nothing undone to carry Russia's full power to the gates of India.

Only Protectorate in Samoa.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The Treasury Department has decided that the island of Tutuila, Samoa, is not United States territory. In a customs sense, and therefore goods coming to the United States are subject to duty under the Dingley tariff law. The department holds that the tripartite agreement between Great Britain, Germany and the United States conveyed to the United States merely a protectorate over Tutuila and the harbor of Pago Pago.

Bryan Talks in New Haven.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 9.—William J. Bryan was the guest of honor at the Jackson day banquet in this city last night of the New Haven Democratic club and spoke informally to 200 prominent Democrats of Connecticut. He told them to stick to their political principles, showing thereby the tenacity of purpose that characterized Andrew Jackson.

Canada Will Aid Marconi.

Will Form a Peace Pact.

New York, Jan. 9.—According to the Managua (Nicaragua) correspondent of the Herald the presidents of the Central American states expect to meet Jan. 15 at Corinto, Nicaragua, to confer on the subject of establishing more cordial relations between their respective republics and to devise means for assuring peace among them.

Wabash Passenger Train Wrecked.

Perrin, Ind., Jan. 9.—Wabash east-bound limited, No. 2, was wrecked in a collision at Lagro, twenty miles east of here early yesterday, crashing into an extra freight, west bound. Engineer John Brumbaugh and fireman W. C. Humphrey were badly injured, but will recover. No passengers were hurt.

LIZZIE MILLER IS AWARDED $1,500

Verdict Reached in Burlington Girl's Breach of Promise Suit by Chicago Jury.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 9.—Jurors in Judge Patten's branch of the superior court, sitting in the breach-of-promise case of Lizzie Miller against Henry J. Huening, awarded the plaintiff $1,500 damages today. The plaintiff was not present, having gone to her home in Burlington, Wis., when the case went to the jury yesterday afternoon.

"We got the verdict we expected," said Attorney C. A. McDonald, who was associated with Attorney E. E. Mills of Burlington in the prosecution of the case. "The plaintiff has been vindicated and Huening will have to pay for his ill-treatment of her."

Miss Miller's case was based on the following circumstances as set forth in the information in the case. She met Huening, who is a building contractor on Belmont avenue in Burlington, while he was engaged in the construction of several buildings in 1893. Their acquaintance, she alleged, resulted in an engagement in 1898, which the defendant, she alleged, broke in 1899. He married another woman.

The plaintiff claimed that she never married until after she had done to considerable expense toward their own wedding. She said his course had caused her great embarrassment among her home friends and that her sorrow at his actions caused her to become ill, so that she lost thirty pounds of flesh and was melancholy. She also insisted that the attentions paid her by Huening had precluded the attentions of other men.

CUBANS APPEAL FOR A TARIFF

Island Is Threatened with Ruin of Business Unless Their Demands Are Granted.

Washington, D.C., Jan. 9.—Secretary Root will send to Congress copies of cable dispatches just received from Cuba, urging the immediate passage by Congress of a law granting tariff concessions to Cuba. The purport of these dispatches is that Cuba is threatened with immediate ruin unless the concessions asked for shall be granted. Secretary Root is pleaded with to use his utmost power to secure the tariff concessions, and has already asked General Wood to come to Washington and appear before the ways and means committee on Jan. 17, in behalf of the legislation proposed in the interest of the island.
